

National Wildlife Refuge Week

October 14-19, 2015

Wednesday, October 14th

Tour the Lighthouse

10:30am – 2:30pm Tickets required

Take a tour of the Daniel K. Inouye Kīlauea Point Lighthouse every hour on the half hour beginning at 10:30am and continuing through 2:30pm. Tickets are obtained on-site. No early reservations will be taken.

Saturday, October 17th

FREE DAY at Kīlauea Point National Wildlife Refuge

10:00am – 4:00pm

Come enjoy the sights and sounds of Kīlauea Point National Wildlife Refuge at no charge! The $5 per adult entrance fee will be waived.

- Make a wildlife magnet
- Get a temporary tattoo
- Complete a Refuge Ranger activity sheet and get a Kīlauea Point Jr. Ranger badge
- Learn about the new 4th grade pass

Do all of this while watching seabirds up close, checking out native coastal plants and observing nēnē in their habitat. Binoculars are provided free to charge for wildlife observation.

Tour the Lighthouse

10:30am – 2:30pm Tickets required

Take a tour of the Daniel K. Inouye Kīlauea Point Lighthouse every hour on the half hour beginning at 10:30am and continuing through 2:30pm. Tickets are obtained on-site. No early reservations will be taken.

Friday, October 16th

Hike to Nihokū (Crater Hill)

9:00am – 12:00pm Reservations required

Join Refuge Rangers, Lori Rodriguez and Angela Iwai, for a moderately strenuous hike to Nihokū where wildlife and breathtaking coastal views abound!

Tuesday, October 19th

Hike to the Nihokū Predator-proof Fence

10:00am – 1:00pm Reservations required

Join Refuge partner, Lindsay Young of Pacific Rim Conservation, for a strenuous hike to view Kaua'i's first predator-proof fence on the slopes of Nihokū. Hear about efforts being made to strengthen Hawaiian petrel and Newell's shearwater seabird populations.

Hike space is limited. Reservations are required and will open Tuesday, October 13th.

Call 635-7190

For more information on Lighthouse Tours, go to:

www.fws.gov/kilaueapoint

Or call 828-1413